BOSCAWEN PUBLIC LIBRARY

The circulation for the past year has been below average, but it seems to prove that wartime activities do lessen time for reading.

The library maintains the following hours: Main Library, Tuesdays—2:00 to 4:30 P. M. and 6:30 to 8:00 P. M. Saturdays—2:00 to 4:30 P. M. Branch: Mondays—6:00 to 8:00 P. M.; Wednesdays—3:00 to 8:00 P. M. However, it was thought advisable to close the main library on Saturdays during February and March due to shortage of fuel.

Posters for Book Week were made at the Main Street school and displayed at the Branch.

This year as in some former years, a lighted tree was placed on the lawn of the Main library during the holiday season.

The Sub-station is still maintained at the County Farm. The students of the Plains school come to the library each Tuesday afternoon for study, reference material, or general reading. This year 217 books have been added.

The following is the circulation: Adult fiction, 6,184; non-fiction, 1,183; juvenile fiction, 2,698; non-fiction, 957; magazines, 768.

Gifts of books from Mrs. Mercie B. Acres, Mrs. Alice M. B. Ranney and Mrs. Mary K. Colby are gratefully acknowledged. Three books were received from the estate of Miss Lizzie Choate; the history of Boscawen and Webster by Charles Carlton Coffin; the history of Boscawen and Webster by Willis G. Buxton, and a copy of Watts Hymns.

The library has been redecorated and a magazine rack purchased to match the interior finish of the building, and the metal one formerly used there taken to the Penacook branch.

The librarian attended the two day meeting of the N. H. Library Association held at Laconia and took part in the program.

The trustees are grateful to Mrs. Emery for continuing the library work, although holding a position in Concord from which she is resigning March 1st. This will enable her to give the time a librarian needs to do the work. Mrs. Julia Goldsmith is the new assistant at the main library. At the branch, Mrs. Ethel McGrale and Mrs. George E. Colby assist all desiring books.

Mr. George Amor is the janitor at the branch and Mr. Harold Hardy, Jr., at the main library.

ISABEL H. GRIMES,
Secretary of the Board of Trustees.
